Chapter 1 by TeleWoof

I awoke with a jolt. The girl sleeping next to me was snoring peacefully. I envied her. It was nice to get away from your worries, and spend a bit of time sleeping.

I had dreamt about her again. My best friend. She had always been loyal to me, had always been there for me, and I had left her to die.

Her name was Minerva. Minnie, for short, but she hated it when I called her that. She wanted to be called Bay, her middle name, but no one ever called her that.

I felt terrible, she had risked her life for me again, and again, and all I had ever done to her was betray her.

~Flashback~

I gazed at Minnie, loving how her silver hair reflected the sunlight. Then, someone broke the door down. Minnie jumped up, readying herself for a fight. I stood there, shocked. The Takers (sort of like a cop, but super evil) pointed their stunners at me.

"Let us take her, and we can upgrade you to a higher class."

I nodded, petrified. She's the one they want, she's a Different, I'm normal, I thought.

I watched as they dragged her away, her obsidian eyes staring at me, full of shock that I had betrayed her.
